

September 2011 - Walter J. Lanier becomes pastor of Progressive Baptist Church (PBC).

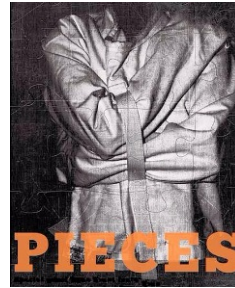

December 2011 - Rev Lanier connects with Brenda Wesley and NAMI Greater Milwaukee.

December 30, 2011 - Rev Lanier distributes a memo to launch a Mental Wellness

September 23, 2012 - PBC hosts a production of Pieces: In My Own Voice.

September 2012 - Brenda Wesley provides ASK (Access, Support, & Knowledge) training to PBC members.

March 15, 2013 - Several local churches partner to host Pieces in conjunction with a Mental Health Resource Fair at Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church.

MIRACLE

Key milestones from 2011 to

March 2014 - Prevent Suicide Greater Milwaukee provides QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer) Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper Training for PBC members.

March 20, 2015 - Mental Health and Wellness Fair at Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church.

November 2011 - Clarene Mitchell, formerly from the Medical College of Wisconsin's Institute for Health and Society, provides Rev Lanier with a list of resources on mental health in African American communities.

May 19, 2012 - PBC hosts a workshop on women and depression, presented by Dr. Yvonne Bell-Gooden of Milwaukee Health

February 18, 2012 - First meeting of PBC's Mental Wellness Ministry.

February 2012 - Rev Lanier connects with NAMI Texas and its Church Tool Kit for Mental Health Ministry.

March 2013 - Presentation at PBC "Raising Awareness - Mental Wellness and Urban Churches"

December 17, 2012 - Prevent Suicide Greater Milwaukee provides QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer) Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper Training for PBC members.

October 2013 - The initiative is titled "MIRACLE" (Mental Wellness Raising Awareness with Church Leaders Everywhere).

Fall 2013 - "Mental Wellness Moments" are added to PBC church services, with topics including trauma and children's mental health.

Fall 2014 - PBC launches support groups for members who have loved ones living with mental illness.

Based on a review of MIRACLE documents (November, 2011 to July, 2015) and conversations with Rev. Walter Lanier of (Progressive Baptist Church Pastor; October 24, 2014; September 10, 2015), Marlene Soyk (Progressive Baptist Church Mental Wellness Ministry member; February 26, 2015), and Delois Taylor (Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church; February 12, 2015).*

